

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

IMPORTANT—Please Read!

(Continued from second cover page)

- 3.—Our plans were laid to have 4,000,000 men in France by July, 1919. 4,000,000 men in France would have meant at least 20,000,000 tons dead weight shipping to care for them, and that program was under way at huge cost.
- 4.—We had practically no American tanks or artillery on the front, but our factories had just got under way and a great, constant stream of these things were en-route. We planned to line the battle front with tanks, 75 feet apart. Imagine what this would have meant to the Germans!
- 5.—By the beginning of 1919 the mustard gas output of American factories would have been nine tons for every ton that Germany could produce.
- 6.—Why did Germany surrender—they were still fighting on foreign soil? The German general staff realized that if the war was prolonged into 1919 that they were not only inviting certain defeat, but certain ANNIHILATION. They became panicky and went to pieces.
- 7.—Surely there are no pessimists who will grumble at helping to support this victorious achievement? Our Government needs money to pay its war bills, recover stability and avoid hard times.

Let us prove that our Americanism was not just "war deep" and get ready to support the Victory Liberty Loan.

Yours to finish the job,

VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN.

April 21—May 10

The Delphian Quarterly

Devoted to Social Progress,
Higher Education and Personal Improvement

---

---

FOUR ISSUES PER YEAR
Twenty-five cents per Number
One Dollar Annually

---

---

SEND SUBSCRIPTIONS TO

The Delphian Society

Fourteen East Jackson Boulevard

CHICAGO